Description:

Not only for Halloween: Whether as a hanging figure, sitting or lying down - the rickety skeleton of Europalms should not be missing at any theme party. Adapt his outfit to the occasion: Hung with spiderwebs and a wig, or dressed in tattered cloth and clothes, the bone-man is the center of the party. Your guests will be delighted.

The skeleton is made of plastic and has a size of about 150 cm. Its jaws and limbs are movable - so it can be easily placed in the desired position.
