Description:

This pumpkin ground stake is the ideal Halloween decoration to warn all visitors of your theme party in advance: only the fearless should approach the prepared scary scenario and those who don't have strong nerves should rather stay away.

The Halloween display is made entirely of plastic and features a carved pumpkin in bright orange and a piece of wood with the unmistakable message "keep out" burned into it. An included insertable stick can be used optionally and serves as a ground plug for a stable stand of the sign.
